

PROGRAM

DRAFT PROGRAM: SUBJECT TO CHANGE

WWW.TRANSPORT2019.COM.AU

TRANSPORT AUSTRALIA CONFERENCE

SHAPING AUSTRALIA'S
TRANSPORT FUTURE

27 - 28 JUNE 2019
HILTON | SYDNEY

ENGINEERS
AUSTRALIA

WITH THANKS TO OUR CONFERENCE SPONSORS

BRONZE

PANDUITTM

DINNER

BARISTA

EXHIBITORS

Indus
Engineering

TUMCREATE

Conference Day 1 – Thursday 27 June 2019

7.45am - 8.15am	Arrival - Registration/Coffee
8.15am - 9.00am	Conference Opening Chair of TAs - Welcome Address Welcome to Country Welcome by Chief Engineer Victoria - Dr Collette Burke
9.00am - 9.40am	Keynote Presentations – Topic 1 The Future of Transport in Australia in 30 and 50 Years, what do we need and how do we pay for it? Rodd Staples, Secretary, Transport for NSW
9.40am - 9.55am	Trackless Trams - the next big thing? Prof Peter Newman, Curtin University
9.55am - 10.10am	Shared (Smart) mobility and Public Transport: a new Future Prof David Hensher, The University of Sydney
10.10am - 10.25am	Tunnels - the only practical way of the future for urban centres Ted Nye, Underground Engineering/E. J. Nye & Associates Pty Ltd
10.25am - 10.50am	Panel Discussion David Anderson, Former Chair of NRTC Prof David Hensher, The University of Sydney Prof Peter Newman, Curtin University Ted Nye, Underground Engineering/E. J. Nye & Associates Pty Ltd
10.50am - 11.15am	Morning Tea & Networking
11.15am - 12.00pm	Keynote Presentation – Topic 2 Renewable Energy Could Provide All Our Transport Fuel Needs By 2030 Dr Stephen Bygrave, NSW Department of Planning & Environment
12.00pm - 12.45pm	Panel Discussion Dr Stephen Bygrave, NSW Department of Planning & Environment Dr Michelle Zeibots, Transport Research Centre UTS David Levinson, The University of Sydney
12.45pm - 1.30pm	Lunch Break
1.30pm - 2.30pm	Concurrent Breakout Session 1 What are our sources of funding, and how do we set a price for a transport service? Prof David Hensher, The University of Sydney Neil Douglas, Douglas Economist Tim Williams, ARUP
1.30pm - 2.30pm	Concurrent Breakout Session 1 Petrol is dead in 2030? If so, what next for transport power? Abbie McQueen, AECOM David Hood, David A Hood & Associates Pty Ltd Jacinta Hargan, KPMG

2.30pm - 3.30pm

Concurrent Panel Breakout Session 2

How best can we link the Australian Capital Cities with Regional Centres, and Regional Centres with each other in 30 and 50 years

2.30pm: David Anderson, Former Chair of NRTC

2.45pm: Jillian Kilby, Infrastructure Collaborative

Scott Benjamin, WSP

David Stuart-Watt, Roads Australia

Stewart McLeod, IPWEA

2.30pm - 3.30pm

Concurrent Breakout Session 2

Challenges of charging electric vehicles in the city and the outback

Dr Stephen Bygrave, NSW Department of Planning & Environment

Adam Sutton, JACOBS

3.30pm - 4.00pm

Afternoon Tea

4.00pm - 5.00pm

Concurrent Breakout Session 3

How does the history help us plan for Australians future transport needs now?

SHAPE 4.00pm: Chris Stapleton, Stapleton Transportation And Planning

Bus Oriented Planning 4.15pm: Matt Faber, Niobe Consulting

Panel 4.30pm: Shane Geha, MD EG Group

Chris Stapleton, Stapleton Transportation and Planning

Matt Faber, Niobe Consulting

4.00pm - 5.00pm

Concurrent Breakout Session 3

Fuel excise does not exist, how do we replace that income stream by 2030?

David Levinson, The University of Sydney

Neil Douglas, Douglas Economics

Ren Niemann, McCullough Robertson Lawyers

7.00pm - 10.00pm

Conference Dinner

Jillian Kilby, Infrastructure Collaborative

Conference Day 2 – Friday 28 June 2019

8.00am - 8.50am

Arrival - Registration/Coffee

8.50am - 9.00am

Opening of Conference Day 2

9.00am - 9.30am

Keynote Presentation - Topic 3

Securing the Future: what is needed and how will transport behaviour be influenced

Lani Refiti, Deloitte Risk Advisory

9.30am - 10.15am

Panel Discussion

Dennis Walsh, QTMR

Dr Glenn Geers, Future Transport Technology

David Anderson, NRTC

10.15am - 10.45am

Morning Tea & Networking

10.45am - 11.15am	Keynote Presentation - Topic 4 Pick the Right Public Transport Project - Business Case and Life Cycle Costs Matthew Longland, TransLink Division
11.15am - 12.00pm	Panel Discussion Chris Tehan, Advisian Marion Terrill, Grattan Institute
12.00pm - 1.00pm	Lunch Break
1.00pm - 1.45pm	Concurrent Breakout Session 4 Autonomous cars and trucks, driverless trains and drones will reshape the Australian fleet composition. Are the security risks able to be managed? Dr Glenn Geers, Future Transport Technology
1.00pm - 1.45pm	Concurrent Breakout Session 4 Setting Strategies before Projects Dr Crystal Legacy, University of Melbourne Neill Miller, Transport Advisory at Urbis
1.50pm - 2.35pm	Concurrent Breakout Session 5 Will infrastructure design and network operations change to secure the network? Dennis Walsh, QTMR Will Fooks, GTA Consultants
1.50pm - 2.35pm	Concurrent Breakout Session 5 Is a business case shake up needed? Brendan Lyon, KPMG (Transport) Marion Terrill, Grattan Institute
2.40pm - 3.25pm	Concurrent Breakout Session 6 How is security changing the way we move? Do policy and investment priorities need to change? David Anderson, NRTC Gerard Reardon, MRCagney
2.40pm - 3.25pm	Concurrent Breakout Session 6 How do we pick the right project now and in the future? Robin Jackson, Infrastructure Australia John Stanley, The University of Sydney
3.25pm - 3.45pm	Afternoon Tea
3.45pm - 4.15pm	Closing Plenary How the Transport Australia Society will lead the National Transport Debate Christian Griffith, GTA Consultants

For more information, sponsorship and exhibition opportunities, and registration, visit:

WWW.TRANSPORT2019.COM.AU